Since Man is a Social Animal, these processes of Enculturation and Transculturation are instrumental in shaping his/her experience & culture.

Enculturation

It is a process in which a person is exposed to culture for the first time.

(ex) A child undergoing enculturation.

- ① Affects Personality : as shown by Ruth Benedict in 'Chrysanthemum and the Sweetest (1946)'
- ② Leads to creation of a Social Order.
- ③ Acts as Foundation of Relations
- ④ Functions to define Social Regulations in Society.

(5) Defines foundation of Emotions.

Transculturation refers to processes which occur when an encultured individual is exposed to a new culture.

(1) Positive outcome: Leads to acceptance of an individual & a healthy cultural dynamics.

[ex] DM Aikhenyui (2018) study in Rohingya Refugee rehabilitation in Australia.

(2) Negative outcome: Leads to counter-culturation & revolts.

[ex] Tribal revolts in British India.

→ Cultures are interacting with each other in contemporary world and Transculturation study holds relevance to handle this dynamics.
