

Q.3b (15 marks): Discuss the impact of Feminist and Women liberation movements on Marriage and Family movement on Marriage & Family.

Feminism & women liberation movement advocate equal rights & opportunities for women in family and outside, at par with men.

Impact on Marriage

Veena Das; IP Desai; Alien Rous; J. Goody have studied the impact.

1. Men are sharing burden on household work, hence division of labour has become gender neutral
2. Women are consulted on major household decisions.
3. Rise in divorce rates
 - ↳ Upto 3 times increase in divorce rate in Kerala in last 2 decades.
4. Delay in age of marriage.
5. Increasing role of individual in deciding marriage partner
 - ↳ Traditionally it was decide by family.
6. Rise of live-in, as alternative to marriage.
7. Acceptance of L-sex marriage.

Impact on Family

- 1) Decline in Total Fertility Rate (TFR)
 - ↳ NFHS-5 data shows TFR of India has reached 2.0.
- 2) Prioritising careers over childbirth & childcare.
- 3) Risk of DINK couple (Double Income No Kids)
- 4) Rise of Single Family ~~Household~~ Member Household.
 - ↳ upto 40% households in USA are single-moth
- 5) Together But Away Couples
 - ↳ Due to both spouses having job in different.

While Feminist has given women more freedom to choose and eliminated traditional gender roles, it has also changed social acceptance towards new types of marriage and family arrangement.
