(a) Relevance of complementary filiation

Decent theorists introduced like Meyer Fortes introduced the concept of filiation and complementary filiation. Complementary filiation refers to kin not from the decent side / line.

Relevance →

- ① Meyer Fortes - Complementary filiation is essential for well-being of human beings
- ② Filiation is political & hierarchical due to competing interests, duties and obligations however complementary filiation provides emotional bonds
e.g. Mama-Bhanya in Hindu society.
- ③ J. Goody → Complementary filiation also performs functions of inheritance sometimes e.g. Yako herders inherit rituals matrilineally where property comes patrilineally.

④ Specific roles are there within social significance like

↳ Rites De Passage

↳ Mediation

e.g. Leopard Skin chief in Nuer of South Sudan (Evans Pritchard)

↳ Rituals in different feminities

⑤ They also provide residual security in case of threat to filial kin

e.g. Death of husband &

⑥ They play role of support during crisis.

Criticism - Edmund Leach said that

"Complementary filiation" concept of Fortes had put them as mere side kin but they are very important as they provide sexual partners -
