

1.c) Household and domestic group

Household as per Ogburn & Nimkoff's is a group of individuals living together at a common residence whereas as per William A. Halland, Domestic group is a household where kin & live together

Similarity

- ↳ Both have common residence
- ↳ Function of economic cooperation, material resource sharing
- ↳ Support during crisis
- ↳ Socialisation impacted

Diff

Difference

- Domestic group is a group of kin (blood or affines) ⇒ lead to broader obligations of kinship being followed
- It's role in influencing key life decisions — e.g. Jural responsibility of kin for marriage decisions.

Contemporary Relevance

- Households increasing due to
 - ↳ corporate culture — bachelor households
 - ↳ industrialisation
 - ↳ colleges and inter-cultural intimacies
- Domestic groups also replacing family
 - ↳ Single woman Domestic group
 - ↳ Matri focal or Patri focal families

Conclusion?