

Anthropological interpretations of live in relationships

Live in relationships is an arrangement where the couple live in prolonged union with common habitation however without being in the institution of marriage.

Live in relationship features :

- May or may not have economic co-operation.
- Common habitation.
- In modern societies, however a different form exist in simple societies like concubinage in China.
- Have legal recognition but not social recognition yet.

Is live-in relationship threat to marriage?

Not necessarily,

- In many societies live-in-relationship precursor to marriage.

Not Asked

- Marriage much more permanent institution than live-in.
- Marriage satisfies many other functions like sexual gratification and channelized reproduction.
- Marriage helps in expansion of alliance network and social recognition.

Contemporary Aspect

In recent times, cases of gruesome violence of live in partner unearthed in Delhi.

The legal machinery accommodates live-in relationship in its vocabulary.

Better support needs to be extended in such instances.

Anthropological Understanding
- POC relationship idea by Anthony Giddens
- emotional & sexual equality

Ulrich Beck: Risk conscious res.

Zygmunt Bauman: liquid love

Watch Discussion lecture

can here-
say

2nd half of quest

-Not
draft properly

Giddens

8 1/2