10(a) Institution of Bridewealth

Bridewealth is a type of marriage payment from groom's family to bride's family.

According to World Ethnographic Atlas by Murdock (1970), bridewealth is most practised marriage payments.

Reasons

- 1) It compensates for the loss of two hands of bride's family.
- 2) It secures sexual services of bride for the groom.

3) It also helps in strengthening the ties between the two family.

4) In a way, it also ~~restricts~~ prevents divorce as the bridewealth is too costly.

5) ~~In many societies~~ For eg: among Ituri, the same spear is used as bridewealth for many marriages. One divorce can start chain reactions of divorces.

Case Study

In many societies, where groom's family cannot pay bridewealth, they offer suitors service.

However due to rising industrialisation & urbanisation, the institution of bridewealth is slowly converting into dowry.
