

L2A™

Do not write anything in this margin

(d) Write a brief note on socioeconomic perspectives on dowry

10

Dowry is a type of marriage payment given by bride's family to groom's family.

Socio-economic reasons

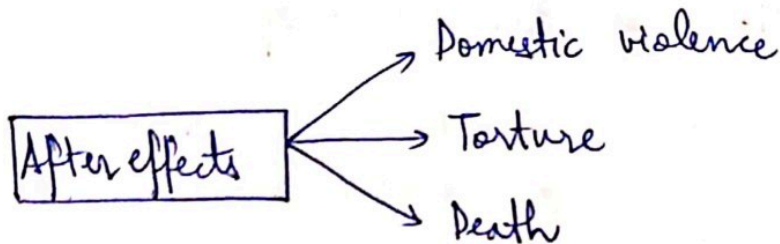

- 1) To get the best bridegroom
- 2) Indirectly supporting bride for benefit of future children
- 3) Patriarchal mindset of society.
- 4) Cementing ties with groom's family.

According to World Ethnographic Atlas by Murdock (1970), dowry is less followed in tribal societies.

L2A™

Do not write anything in this margin

* Dowry is ~~now~~ characteristic of in class and caste based societies.

* There ~~having~~ been increasing dowry case in India. Despite being stricter laws, dowry is considered as a social prestige in society.

* However, with increasing female education, ~~and~~ female independence of finance, cases of dowry can be seen reducing in cities.

