

L2A™

15

Do not write anything in this margin

(b) Discuss various types of marriages among different societies

According to 6th edition of 'Noty & Queries (1957)' marriage is union between man and woman such that children born to them are legitimate offsprings.

Kingsley Davis in his book 'Society (1940)' gave the types of marriage.

1) Based on ~~Places~~ Numbers

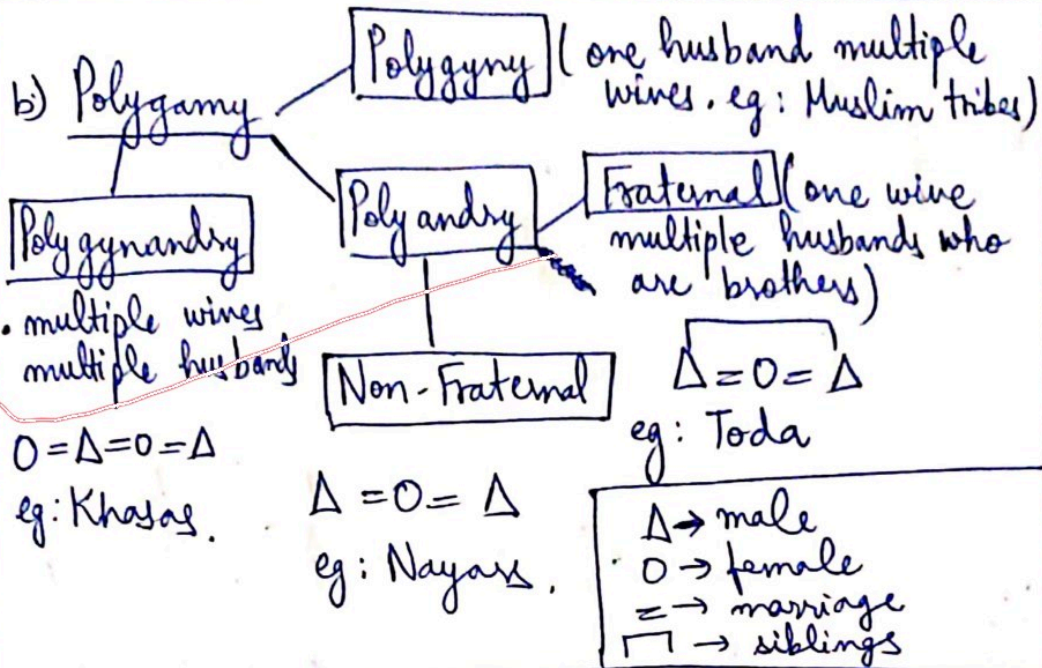

a) Monogamy: marriage between a man and woman, simplest form prevalent worldwide. Two Types

- Non-serial: man marries only a single wife throughout life. eg: Indian society.

- Serial: man marries multiple woman after each subsequent divorce. eg: western societies.

L2A™

Do not write anything in this margin

2) Based on rules

a) Prescriptive norms : must be followed strictly.

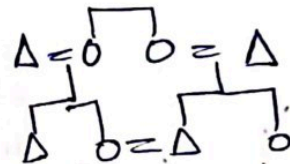

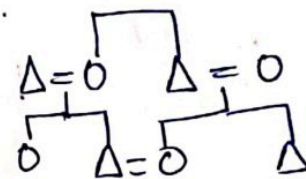

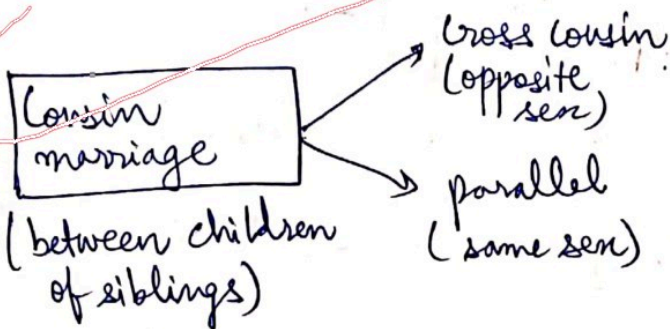

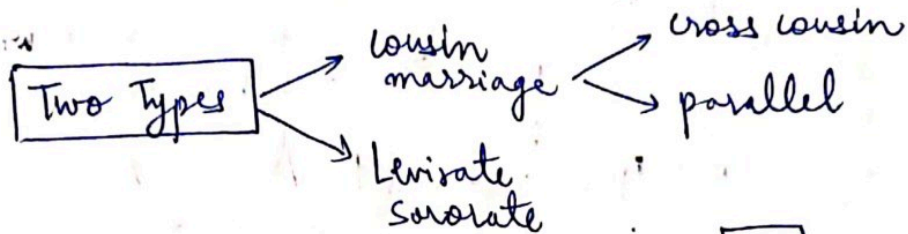

Endogamy

marriage within a cultural group.
eg: caste endogamy

Exogamy

marriage outside a cultural group eg: gotra exogamy.

b) Preferential norms: preferences are provided

With changing society, monogamous marriage is increasing worldwide.

8