

L2A™

10

Do not write anything in this margin

(b) Segmentary Lineage and territoriality

A lineage is form of stateless society with political authority at lineage level and not at societal level.

~~Level~~~~Segment~~

Examples?

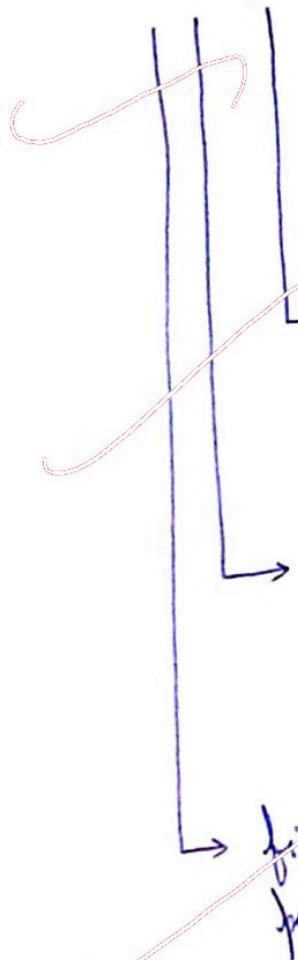

Lineage

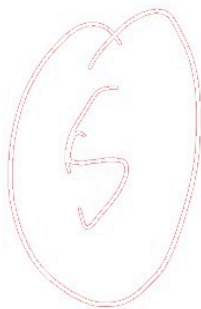

defined territory but not defined boundary function of political authority to maintain social order authority at lineage level not at societal level.

Segmentary lineage is the minimal lineage which has the fixed territory

-
- It has political head who wields authority to resolve disputes
 - This function as a social unit and performs various economic functions
 - each segmentary lineage represented and many combined forms a maximal lineage.
 - fixed territorial limit where power can be exercised.

add Indian examples too