

(anything in this Area)

Q7.

The impact of globalization on indigenous peoples has been complex and multifaceted, ranging from economic and political marginalization to cultural commodification and appropriation. Elaborate. (15 marks)

The globalization is a phenomenon of interconnectedness of world. It is pervasive and has impacted the indigenous people in various aspect.

IMPACT OF globalization : ECONOMIC

Production

- Modes of production disturbed.
- Indigenous people land grabbed.
- New technology introduced (Ex) Eskimos using rifles.

Ownership

- Joint and communal ownership of indigenous people not recognized.
- Private ownership. study of Richard Lee To / Hoore

Distribution

- Barter perishing as it is based on delicate balance.
- Forced to enter the modern market-based on supply and demand.

IMPACT OF Globalization : POLITICAL MARGINALIZATION

- Modern society state exist in simple society state's polity. Globalization is reducing the distance between the two.
- Simple society caught in modern legal dispute resolution.
 - Ex) Lays suing the farmers from Gujarat.
- Globalization leading to exposure to new social order.
- Modern state new territories and border which is absent in indigenous society.

IMPACT OF Globalization : cultural commodification

- Cultural commodification in the form of patenting.
- The selling of labour in the market. Ex) working in plantation as labourers.

- Money entering the economy.
- New cultural invasions.
- Detachment of cultural traits.

Although the ongoing process has few silver-linings

- (i) New tribal products getting exposure For eg: Jodas - Shawl basket art.
- (ii) New agencies established for tribal support like TRIFED.
- (iii) Indian govt - 6th schedule, 5th schedule, Forest Rights Act, 2006.

C.

Include: Cultural Appropriation.

→ Forced cultural change

eg conversion to christianity by missionaries and Destruction of youth dormitories and opening of convent schools.

①