

L2A™

Do not write anything in this margin

SECTION - B

Q5. Write notes on the following in about 150 words each

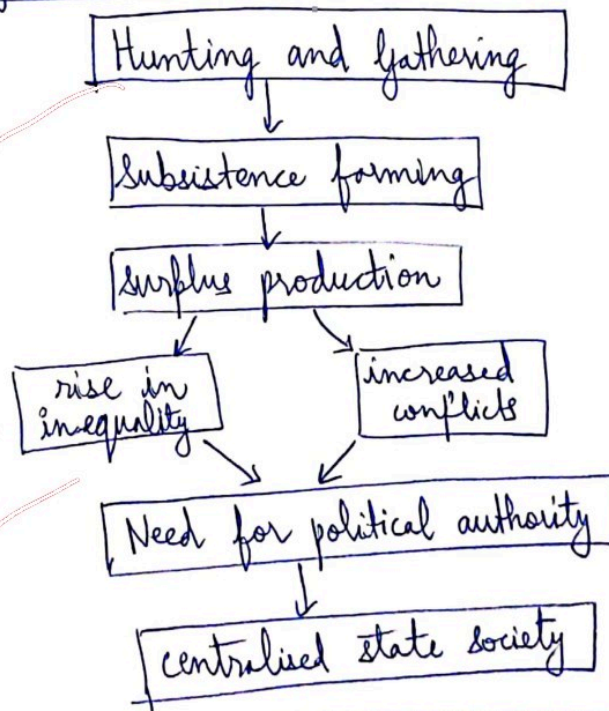

10x5=50

(a) Write a note on rise of state systems

10

State systems are characterised by centralised authority, cephalous and non-segmentary.

Evans Pritchard in his book 'African political system (1960)' gave the following evolution of state system

Functions of state society

- 1) They have defined territory and defined boundary.
- 2) Authority ~~of~~ is centralised and present at top.
- 3) Power is ~~off~~ often exercised through use of physical force.
- 4) Presence of bureaucrats and administrators to exercise authority.
- 5) Leadership includes charismatic and traditional.
- 6) The main aim of state is to maintain law & order, while defending the territory.

State system include modern countries like USA, India and Russia

④

→ add / show
45 hypothesis of how