

i.d) Pattern of Culture and Special Genius

Melville Benedict in "Patterns of Culture" along with E. Sapir expanded on this idea; as part of Culture Personality School Patterns of Culture;

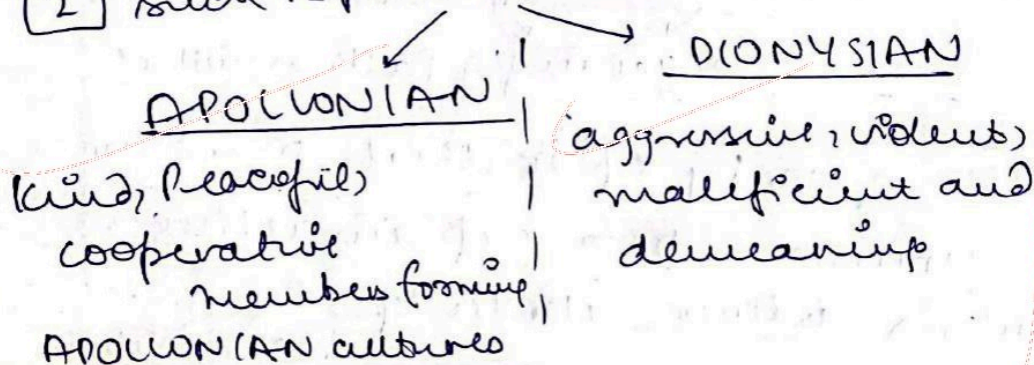

Melville Benedict said patterns of culture are the smallest, integrative, repetitive units of cultural behaviour.

Configuration and Psychological approach

She stated that basic traits and complexes integrate into cultural patterns & form configuration of a culture that leads to special genius. She states

[2] such special genius

She studied the Nobus of Melanesia and Pueblo Indians, Tumi and Kwakiutl.

APOLONIAN	DIONYSIAN
① Pueblo Indians are peaceful, have cooperative personality. Their culture has benevolent gods, equality.	① Nobus of Melanesia have conflict with each other, spun with jealousy. Their culture has maleficent gods and conflicts.
② Tumi foragers do not boast, show off, have DEPENDENCE TRAINING and have cooperation. ↓ allow ceremonial and gift based reciprocity.	② Kwakiutl people are pompous and proud. They insult each other and compete. Focus on INDEPENDENCE TRAINING. ↓ Break things in Potlatch.
2 genius of Pattern of Culture

Criticism was by Opler that more than 2 geniuses needed to explain culture.

Linton & Kardiner later developed Basic Personality.
